Ponoka School Trouble

TEACHERS ASK INCREASE—TRUSTEES REFUSE

Resignations Are in Order

Things have come to a pass in Ponoka school, and just what the outcome will be, future will tell.

Four teachers are being paid $390 per annum, and they have been asking for an increase—something like $200. This the majority of the trustees refuse to consider, holding that an agreement was entered into when they were engaged, and this is binding. Now the Teachers' Alliance has taken the matter up, and the teachers are threatening to resign.

While the Herald does not intend to take sides, or know all the details, still it must be obvious to the taxpayers that at this time with the high cost of living, $390 is not sufficient salary. The country schools are paying much higher salaries, and if Ponoka wants good efficient teachers, fair wages must be paid.

The fault of our school trustees has been that we have always kept down salaries to the lowest possible, with the result that we have never been able to keep first-class teachers—there has been no permanency in the staff. If we are to have efficiency we must pay for it. The taxes are high, and the upkeep of the school is heavy, but on the other hand the young must be educated to the best of our ability.

Meetings have been held, the Mayor called a special meeting of council when a unanimous resolution in favour of an increase was passed.

It might be well to state how the trustees stand in the matter. At a meeting held last week, the vote stood thus—For granting an increase—Mrs G. E. Clarke and T. H. Cunningham; against, Mrs T. W. Hutchinson, Ed. Hinkley and Jas Marshall.

The town council resolution is as follows—Resolved, that the Members of the Ponoka Town Council, assembled in special meeting in the council chamber at Feb. 5th, 1920, do hereby recommend that the Ponoka School Board grant the request of the teachers and justify in regard to an increase in salaries.

At a meeting of the Ponoka School Board held on Feb. 10th, 1920, moved by A. Reid, seconded by A. Graham, supported by W. W. Russell, A. A. Graham, A. Reid, J. P. Horn, Geo. E. Bowker, J. Wyman.

Ponoka, Feb. 9th, 1920.

Mr. Editor,—Just a few lines in your paper referring to a resolution passed by the town council on Feb. 5th, trying to run the school board and make them break their contract with the teachers. We wish to remind them of what happened to the Kaiser for doing such a thing. We do not want his fate. Now, Mr. Town Council, if you want to run the school and break that contract and pay the bill out of the town funds you have our consent. It is up to the taxpayers as to whether the school. If you think you can make the school board do it, you are barking up the wrong tree.

Yours truly,

ED. HINKLEY, JAS. MARSHALL

Extradition of 890 Persons Asked

Paris, Feb. 9.—The official list of those whose extradition is demanded by the allies was issued Saturday night without comment. The text of the original covering note and of the new note referring to von Lersner's refusal to accept the list were not made public.

A paper bound book of more than 200 pages contains the names of the 890 persons or groups, with the rank and accusations against them. In many cases where names are not known a general description of the duties of the accused is given.

Four pages are devoted to Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff the same accusations serving for both of them.

The British list contains charges against 97 members and groups of the French 314, the Italians of the 344, the Polish 51, the Rumanian 11, and the Japanese four. This list is not complete, as there are a few indications.

Ten camp commanders are named in the British list. They are in charge at St. Amant, Pannat, Conant, Fort de Flines, Laventie, Valenciennes, Marquion, Marquise, Orlais and Salome.

The list of persons and groups who are designated by their rank or description of their duties because their names are not known number 112.

Paris, Feb. 9.—Anxiety is growing in Swiss official quarters that many Germans accused by the allies of war crimes enter Switzerland to escape liability under the peace treaty.

It is reported from Basel that Vice Admiral von Capelle, former minister of the German navy, crossed the frontier Saturday.

Baron von Derlanch, civil governor of Brussels during German occupation, is reported to have arrived in Switzerland from Munich. Former Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria has been staying at Davos.

There is no Swiss law against the entrance into the country of fugitives.

THE LATE JAMES HOLBEN

James Holben died January 20 at the home of his son, Arthur, at Kalspel, Mont., after a lingering illness, the result of paralysis, aged 84 years, 32 days. He was a native of England, and came to Canada in 1852, and to Ponoka in 1870. Here he farmed and later established the Magnolia cheese factory at the old cheese house, which did a large business for the time. He continued to reside in the country until 19 years ago, when he moved to Alberta province, Canada. The past few years he lived part of the time with his son, George, in Alberta, and the remainder in Montana. He leaves a son, Earl of Ponoka, Alberta, George, of Ponoka, Alberta, Arthur and Charles, in California, the two Charles being twins. Two daughters, Mrs. Bertha Bolch, of Canada, and Mrs. W. W. Russell, of Wyoming. His wife, Mrs. Frances Geo. of Montana, and Arthur Holben, of Ponoka, are deceased's sister and brother. The remains were brought here Monday, January 26th, for interment in the M.E. church Tuesday at 11 a.m., and interment in Magnolia cemetery. James was a genial kindly man, and is justly remembered by a number of the old settlers.

The funeral and burial was at Magnolia, the services being conducted by the Masonic order. A kind friend, a worthy citizen, a son-in-law has gone on—Logan Oberster, Iowa.

Inter-Church Forward Movement

Throughout Canada a great financial drive in connection with the Inter-Church Forward Movement is taking place this and next week. The total sum of the cooperating churches is $11,300.00. The Methodist Church is raising at $10,000.00 and the Presbyterian Church $4,000.00. The share allotted to the United Church of Canada, towards this amount is $1500, with $325 for the General Missionary Fund. It is expected that the people of Ponoka and district will respond generously to the appeal which will be made. If the church is not adequately supported in her social and evangelistic work—in her work in connection with the then the dangers which threaten society will overwhelm society. We cannot afford to be selfish in the critical days through which we are passing. The people in the Southwestern section have already in many places, especially in this district, where total crop failure is unknown, the objectives of the various churches have been exceeded. Many farmers could give the total value of the unexpected 50 cent increase on their wheat, and not actually feel it. In this district many men on small salaries are giving one-tenth of their income. What have we freely given to the work of God during the past ten years, and how does it compare with our total income.

The United Church will be glad to receive contributions for either the Methodist or Presbyterian Forward Movement Funds.

NATURALIZATION TO BE GIVEN U.S. CITIZENS

Ottawa, Feb. 10.—Citizens of the United States now resident in Canada have their naturalization certificates held up for some time by reason of the action of the United States state department, which will receive the certificates without further delay. Some 2,500 United States citizens, domiciled in Canada, are affected by the decision, and it is stated that the delay consequent upon the difficulty over the issue of certificates has caused great hardship to many of these men. Farmers have been unable to secure title to their lands, and business men have been unable to secure passports allowing them to leave Canada for overseas.

The federal and burial was at Magnolia, the services being conducted by the Masonic order. A kind friend, a worthy citizen, a son-in-law has gone on—Logan Oberster, Iowa.

Owing to the increased cost of the different grades of cotton and rubber used in the manufacture of Automobile Tires, manufacturers advise that prices will not remain at the present figures for any length of time.

In anticipation of increased prices we have ordered a number of tires which we will sell at present prices to any one placing their order now, for delivery any time up to April 20th.

Cotton prices have advanced 40% in past six months. This will give you some idea of what spring prices may be.

If Thin, Nervous, Run Down, Depressed, This Will Help!

The wear and strain of life has tended to recent years the production of nervous debility in a large percentage of our population. Thousands are afflicted with a feeling they can't exactly describe. They are always tired and droopy, lack ambition, have poor appetite, sleep late and suffer from depression, indigestion and insomnia.

This condition is full of peril. It is the stepping stone to invalidism, the beginning of a shattered constitution.

We advise everyone in this condition to take a good medicine at once and try to get well while yet there is time.

Probably no better advice can be given than to use Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which have become famous in restoring the sick to good health. A general toning up of the system at once takes place. The whole body is vitalized by rich and pure blood. The appetite is increased, food is digested and naturally strength rapidly returns. Headaches, constipation, the bowels are regular, and all wastes are carried off.

There is no excitement about using Dr. Hamilton's Pills because they certainly restore health in a trial will quickly prove. Just as good for the old as the young, and suitable to the needs of mothers and children. This grand family medicine should be in every home.

They found a quiet tea-room. When they were seated Dave looked at Hamilton, plunged into the subject nearest his heart.

"I have been wanting an opportunity to talk to you—wanting it for weeks," he said. "But I always seemed to be too busy."

"Always seemed that you were thwarted," Irene completed his thought. "You didn't disguise your annoyance very well when I was annoyed."

"Do you blame me for being annoyed?"
"No. But I rather blame you for showing it. You see, I am annoyed too."

"Then you had nothing to do with—bringing about the situation that existed?"

"Certainly not. Surely you do not think that I would do anything of the kind?"
"I beg your pardon, Irene," said Dave, contritely. "I am not a very known better. But it seemed such a strange coincidence."

She was looking at her cup, and for once her eyes avoided him. "You should hardly think me very sure," she said. "You should hardly conclude that what has happened is a coincidence."

"You are right—entirely so," said Dave. "To a monopoly of your attention. Perhaps not, but you are so good to me that I feel a chance to win a monopoly of your attention."

"I am not a very known better, but it seemed such a strange coincidence," she said. "I am not a very known better, but it seemed such a strange coincidence."

"I must have a fair chance to win that monopoly," he repeated. "How did it happen that the word was sent?"

"I don't know. It just happened. A little after you telephoned he called up and asked for mother, and the next I knew she had said we were coming up to spend the evening. And then I said you were coming."

"And what did she say?"
"Irene hesitated. "Irene didn't make me tell you," she whispered at length.

"Don't hesitate from any fear of hurting me," he said, with a laugh. "I know I have been a nuisance to you with my mother. On your account I could wish I had been more successful, but perhaps she will be fair when she knows me better. What did she say?"

"She just said, 'That cow puncher.' And I just told her that you were the man who got the word sent."

"Conward & Ellen from me I am having your slung—and a few more things I told her, too."

"But Dave had dropped into a sudden reverie. It was not so remarkable as it seemed that Conward & Ellen had telephoned Mrs. Hardy almost immediately after the first telephone line. Conward's telephone and Dave's were on the same circuit; it was a simple matter for Conward, if he happened to find the receiver during Dave's conversation, to listen in."

"I don't know," he said. "That might happen again, at any time, might begin innocently enough. The fact that Conward had acted up on the information, and then the danger; first, that he had no very reasonable sense, and then that Dave had had suspected—second, that he had deliberately planned a conflict with Dave's visit to his mother. This indicated a policy of some kind, and it was clear that Dave was as yet able to fathom."

"It is the accountant's number. There's a reason."

It dattered his masculine authority that she put the card in her purse without comment. She did not ask him to explain. Dave knew that when a woman no longer asks for explanations the way man has higher regard for her.

"The cups were empty; the sandwiches and cake were gone," Dave ventured at length. "Just where I was going to say. You remember our agreement?"

"She averted her eyes, but her voice was steady. "You have deserved the name," she said.

"Yes—all essential matters. I come to you now—in accordance with these terms. You said that I would know. Now I know; know that I have always known since those wonderful days in the foothills; those days from which I date my existence. Anything worth while that has happened in my life was sown by your smile and your confidence and your strange pride in me, back in those sunny days. And I would repay it all—and at the same time double my debt—by returning it to you, if I can."

"I realize that I owe you an answer, Dave," she said, frankly. "And I find it very hard to give to a man. Marriage means so much more to a woman than it does to a man. I know you don't think that."

"I suppose you are right," he answered. "I will not try to give you a decision. I will only try to give you an opportunity to know—to be sure, as you said. Then, when you are sure, you will speak. I will not resist the subject."

His words had something of the ring of an ultimatum, but no endearments. He had his lips might have been applied to a tender,aching corn stone patient at once, and soon the corn would be up and the foot would be free.

"I suppose you are right," he answered. "I will not try to give you a decision. I will only try to give you an opportunity to know—to be sure, as you said. Then, when you are sure, you will speak. I will not resist the subject."

Aviation to Weld Empire

Possibilities That Will Be Opened Up
By Air Routes Already

The London Times, in an article dealing with aviation as an empire welder, says that for communication with the outlying parts of the empire, India, Canada, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand, it would be difficult to overestimate the importance of the possibilities that will be opened up by air routes already surveyed within the empire.

Nothing, it says, not even the personal magnetism of the Prince of Wales, will prove more valuable as an instrument, not only for annihilating time and space, but for drawing ever closer ties of sympathy and mutual understanding which bind together the mother country and the dominions.

"I realize that I owe you an answer, Dave," she said, frankly. "And I find it very hard to give to a man. Marriage means so much more to a woman than it does to a man. I know you don't think that."

"I suppose you are right," he answered. "I will not try to give you a decision. I will only try to give you an opportunity to know—to be sure, as you said. Then, when you are sure, you will speak. I will not resist the subject."

"I suppose you are right," he answered. "I will not try to give you a decision. I will only try to give you an opportunity to know—to be sure, as you said. Then, when you are sure, you will speak. I will not resist the subject."

Changing Status Of Afghanistan

New Ruler Negotiating With Russia's
For a long period before the British outpost for India. The Amir governs the country as he thought fit; but, for the better protection of India, the British restricted the Afghans in alliances with foreign powers.

Indeed, the former ruler of the country were practically under British control, and for this right of restriction a handsome subsidy was paid annually to the Amir. Shortly after the war ended a new Amir reached the throne of Afghanistan as a result of the assassination of his predecessor and the new ruler invaded India and apparently effected a rising in India to equal simultaneously with his invasion. In this he was disappointed, and a British-India army of a quarter of a million men met him near the border. There was some fighting, after which a new arrangement was made, under which the British subsidy was withdrawn and the Amir left free to control his own foreign affairs.

The collapse of Russia is giving the Amir reason to believe that another explanation is a British requirement all his military resources in the Far East to hold India in subjection. Meanwhile the new Afghan ruler is said to be negotiating a new treaty with the new Government of Russia.

"I suppose you are right," he answered. "I will not try to give you a decision. I will only try to give you an opportunity to know—to be sure, as you said. Then, when you are sure, you will speak. I will not resist the subject."

Will Now Refuse To Surrender War Culprits

Berlin.—Field Marshal von Bue low held the Lokai Angler to the terms whose names are on the list on whose extradition is demanded by the allies, "only did their duty to the Fatherland," and that extradition was ignominy to which "no German would voluntarily submit."

The field marshal declared he would never place himself at the disposal of the entente nations, and expressed the belief that most of the commanders named in the allied list would take the same view.

It is understood that meetings of army and navy commanders were held on January 7, and it was unanimously concluded that evasion of the extradition clause of the Versailles treaty was entirely compulsory.

German honor and that no one must voluntarily surrender. Legal objections should be lodged against the arrest of any of the commanders, it was decided at these meetings.

Even if the present government is forced to give way to a new coalition composed of Independent Socialist or other factions, the same situation will prevail, it is said. It is not impossible the government will promptly get into touch with the national assembly, which is expected to reconvene next week, though it is not expected to meet until the end of the month.

It is believed that the government will attempt to obtain a modification of the peace treaty respecting the accused Germans demanded for extradition. If it is unsuccessful, it will, so to speak, fold its arms and let events take their own course, according to prevalent opinion. Already it is reported the German situation detailed to account for the commission have refused to perform their duties. A scrutiny of the extradition list shows that Belgium and France have demanded the extradition of all the German generals who commanded on the western front in 1914, except General von Heeringen. Why the Duke of Hesse is listed is a mystery, says the Tageblatt, as he only once visited the front.

Finances of Count Hohenzollern

Protest Is Entered Against Plan to Restore Prince's Property

Berlin.—Efforts to keep intact the fortune of former Emperor William I, who was deposed in 1918, are being made by the Hohenzollerns. The newspaper says this movement is in behalf of a "man who is dead German."

The bill now before the Prussian diet represents a masterpiece of old Prussian efficiency, says the editorial, "for the financial status of Count Hohenlohe is placed on the basis of his right to property, while nothing is said as to his guilt on the political situation. It is perhaps well to remember that the national constitution gives the government the right to seize private fortunes."

Must Banish Ex-Kaiser

Sir Auckland Geddes Says Allies Will Put Former Emperor on Trial

London.—Sir Auckland Geddes, Minister of National Service and Reconstruction, speaking at Antwerp, said the government later would put the former German emperor on trial and carry out whatever penalty was provided. But, he added, if Holland definitely declared her intention on the basis of international law, to provide asylum for him within Dutch territory, then he must say the former ruler could not reside on Dutch territory in Europe, and Holland must put him on some island belonging to her outside of Europe.

Taking Action To Improve Financial Situation

Ottawa.—Gradual reduction of Dominion notes in circulation, it is understood, is planned by the government as a means of improving the financial situation. The last returns issued by the finance department show that the total amount of Dominion notes in circulation amounted to $2,000,000. They were reduced to the extent of $1,182,000, and in approved securities, under the terms of the Finance Act of 1914, to the amount of $154,239,000. The gold is therefore at about 35.9 per cent of the total issues.

At the end of the financial year total Dominion notes outstanding were $2,000,000. Gold amounted to $1,182,000, or 38.9 per cent of the total issue, and of the Dominion notes outstanding, $144,239,000 were accounted

Heavy Storm in North Atlantic

Sea Resorts Suffer Considerable Damage from Tremendous Waves

New York.—Huge waves, rolled up by a 50-mile gale, have been sweeping the North Atlantic coast, and towns along the shore have been under with indifferent success to dig themselves out of the deepest snow-drifts of years.

Damage done to the sea resorts and summer homes along the New Jersey and Long Island coasts was estimated at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Shipping remained at anchor or moved with the utmost caution. In the unbroken waterways around New York huge ice floes menaced navigation.

The steamer Maine of the New England Steamship Company, was driven ashore on the north end of Long Island, and four other steamers were reported creeping along high fields of ice.

Cold snow, ice and high seas have made it almost impossible to transport coal from the tide-water region at Perth Amboy to New York, and the cities face a fuel famine.

While mountaineers were battling with snow, the highest tide ever recorded in New York harbor caused floods along the Hudson and Harlem rivers. Flooded ferry houses on the New York and New Jersey sides of the Hudson hampered still further transportation lines already struggling with deep snow.

Serious damage was done at Rockaway Beach, where two modern summer hotels, thirty bungalows, a forty-acre apartment house, a bath house and numerous small structures were washed into the sea. Traffic in the snow-filled streets in New York divided to 15 per cent of normal.

Former German Ships to Be Sold

Vessels Must Be Kept Under American Flag and Subject to Army Needs

Washington.—President Wilson has approved the sale of the 30 former German passenger vessels, for which the shipping board recently received bids, and negotiations for the sale will proceed, Chairman Payne, of the board, announced.

To meet obligations of the War Department, which recently protested against the sale of certain of the liners as needed in its transport service, Mr. Payne said a clause would be inserted in the sale contracts specifically and emphatically requiring the vessels under the American flag and subject to the needs of the army in case of a national emergency.

Has Good Effect

Lord Grey's Letter on Attitude of United States Creates Better Understanding

London.—The Times' political writer says that Lord Grey's letter on the attitude of the United States towards the League of Nations scheme has brought about consideration on both sides of the Atlantic, and at the same time has checked the pernicious campaign of some British newspapers. The motives for this campaign, he says, are being investigated and probably will be debated in parliament, particularly the outrageous demand to stand the trial of the former ruler could not reside on Dutch territory in Europe, and Holland must put him on some island belonging to her outside of Europe.

Canadian Delegates Had Rough Journey

Arrived in Paris After Conference Had Been Adjourned Until March 2

Ottawa.—Canada's labor delegates to the Paris conference had a tiresome trip across the Atlantic, which delayed their arrival until after the governing body of the International Labor Office had adjourned on January 2. F. A. Achard, deputy minister of labor, was called to Senator Robertson that a number of important items on the Paris agenda had been laid over to be taken up at the London meeting.

The Canadian delegates found that they would be unable to secure home-ward passage for at least forty days. Under these circumstances the Government has called Mr. Achard to remain over, so that he can take part in the London meeting. It is understood that Tom Moore, president of the Canadian trades and labor congress, will also remain in England.

Another Offer Offered

Hun Writer Says Sentencing of Ex-Kaiser Would Endanger

Berlin.—Karl Kautsky, who investigated the claims leading to the war, writes in the Berlin Volkszeitung, "The passing of sentences on Wilhelm (the former German emperor) before an enemy court would not alter the fact that a conspiracy was in being, but would add to it. Wilhelm would appear as a traitor, and for this crime or that, but for being a German his popularity would suffer. The sentence would be a disaster to the German people."

Her Kautsky is of the opinion that the entente should not go beyond sentencing Holland into appointing a general to the command of the island where the German friends would be very difficult.

Wilson Found Guilty

Former Member of R.N.W.M.P. Sentenced to Death for Murder

Saskatoon.—John Wilson, former member of the R.N.W.M.P., was found guilty of murdering his wife Mary Wilson, by a jury in King's Court Bench here. Chief Justice Haultain immediately sentenced him to hang at the gallows at Prince Albert jail on April 23.

The jury deliberated one hour and five minutes. On receiving the verdict Justice Haultain asked Wilson if he had anything to say. Immediately his appearance of apathy, which has featured the trial, passed, and, jumping to his feet, he expressed the front of the docket and replied:

"Yes, Mr. J., I wish to protest against the low-down, dirty methods of the law in taking advantage of my condition of mind and body to obtain false information from me."

Sentence was then pronounced and Wilson was hustled from the court, and was in his cell four minutes after the word "Guilty" was rendered.

Wilson's counsel offered no defence. The prisoner was physically unable to stand the strain of going into the box, he told his Lordship.

Save Socialist Spit on Trump

Albany.—A sensation was struck at the trial of five suspended Socialist assemblymen here, when Ellen H. Clarke, a girl of 16, testified that she had seen Charles Solomon, one of the accused, spit on the United States flag during the trial. She had, she said, volunteered her evidence as "the duty of any American."

U.S. Manufacturers In Majority

Ottawa.—An interesting comparison of the number of outside manufacturing firms having branch factories in Canada has been compiled by the Canadian trade commission. This shows that while there are scarcely half a dozen British manufacturers with branch factories here, there are some 530 American manufacturers, whose products range from farm machinery and tractors to packing house products.

Set Profit on Woolens

New York.—Arthur Williams, federal food administrator, ruled that 16 per cent is to be the maximum profit on the sale of woolens. One firm that made a profit of $1.85 a yard on material purchased for $3.55, was ordered to pay back the profit. The firm was given twenty-four hours to pay the $1.85, and if it failed to do so, it would be liable for a fine of not more than ten per cent, and pay their former victim $1.25 a yard.

Berlin.—The Zeevolk Blatt asserts that Japan had intimated to the German government that Dr. Siegfried, former secretary for the colonies, will not be persona grata, as Germany's representative at Tokyo. The Kreiszeitung says that similar difficulties are being raised in Brussels regarding the appointment of Herr Landsberg.

Six Hundred V.C.'s During the War

Out of Six Million Soldiers, 254,138 Have Been Decorated

London.—War honors published recently, Canadian names of which have been called, constitute the final awards in respect of theatres of war, where hostilities closed at the armistice.

Prices of U. S. Commodities Advance

Exchange Rate Results in Increased Price on American

Winnipeg.—Many American commodities sold in Winnipeg have increased in price owing to the heavy rate of exchange existing between the two countries. Merchants say they have withheld from raising the prices as long as possible, hoping that the exchange rate would drop.

Owing to its continued increase, they have, however, been forced to raise the prices of many commodities. Book dealers have announced an advance of five cents on magazines from across the border.

Inspector Lanoue will be in charge of a large detachment at Halifax, and the institution of a system of regiments of the docks and other government buildings.

Grain Export Stopped

No Shipments of Cattle Grain Made During Past Month on Account of Exchange Rate

Winnipeg.—On the grain market the serious situation of the exchange rate has had the effect of practically halting all export business to Europe and, until some improvement to two weeks ago, grain exports, there is little prospect that any export business will be consummated.

For the past month or six weeks there has been no export of cereals to Great Britain from either Canada or the United States. Up to two weeks ago a fair export business was being done from Canada to Belgium and France, both cash and barley, but this has been stopped.

The Stabilizing Remedy

Vancouver.—The stabilizing remedy for declining exchange rate of British currency in the United States, and the only one, is the production of a home and improved internal trade with the dominions overseas. It is here that the remedy lies, says Mr. Smith, of Dunedin, New Zealand, editor of the New Zealand Shipping Gazette, who is here from Great Britain on route to Dunedin.

Mr. Smith states that British manufacturing firms are exerting every effort to get back to normal in New Zealand during the war.

Will Use Plane for Exploring

Shanghai.—Huge passenger airplanes will probably be used by Roy C. Anderson, of the American Museum of Natural History, New York City, in exploring Tibet next summer. Mr. Anderson, who has been in the great part of 1912 to remote corners of China, gathering specimens for the museum. He says his trip will be a grandly made.

Calgary.—The Canadian Air Board will establish two aidrooms in Alberta, one in Calgary with 12 machines, and one at Peace River. The aidrooms are to be used for instruction and government work, and to take the place of the Canadian Air Board.

G. T. Shareholders and the Government

Sir Alfred Smithers Convening Meeting to Ratify the Agreement

London.—Sir Alfred Smithers, chairman of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, is convening a meeting of shareholders for the 19th instant to ratify the agreement between his company and the Canadian Government. He has issued a circular stating that the board of directors, after long and anxious consideration, unhesitatingly advised acceptance of the agreement. The circular says:

"The state of railway finance and working brought about by the war shows features common to the United States, Great Britain and Canada, but the United States saved shareholders from loss by guaranteeing the companies an average income for three years. The British Government at the beginning of the war, saved the British shareholders by guaranteeing the income for 1914, but no such assistance was given by the Canadian Government to Canadian railways."

"All through the negotiations the Canadian Government pressed the liabilities of the Grand Trunk, for the Grand Trunk Pacific was the chief reason for acquiring the Grand Trunk on very moderate terms. It is the opinion of the board of directors that the Grand Trunk Pacific was the chief reason for acquiring the Grand Trunk on very moderate terms. It is the opinion of the board of directors that the Grand Trunk Pacific was the chief reason for acquiring the Grand Trunk on very moderate terms."

India's Industrial Development

Lord Chelmsford Outlines Plan Before the Opening of the Legislature

Delhi, India.—In opening the legislative council on an auspicious day, Lord Chelmsford, outlined the steps which were being taken to enable the government to play an active part in the industrial development of the country. He stated that the Secretary of State for India had sanctioned the creation of a department of industries, and that the government was now in progress of establishing co-operation with the provincial governments, also the establishment of scientific services and the institution of a system for the purchase of government stores.

A committee, he said had been appointed to advise on the organization of chemical services, and to deal with raw materials under the chairmanship of Dr. Jocelyn Field. The committee had been appointed to scrutinize government industries, and to view to their execution in India.

The munitions board would work out the remainder of the industrial work, and the specific proposals, thus laying the foundation of a new department of industries.

Help For Vienna Children

Italian Trains Arrive to Take Away Those in Need for Remainder of Winter

Venice.—An Italian train has just arrived to take 2,500 children of Vienna to Milan for the remainder of the winter. The train brought several loads of badly needed Red Cross supplies.

The departure of these children completes the tenth consignment sent to Italian towns to recuperate.

Virtually all the towns of Northern Italy are now open to the enemy, and the children are being taken to Italy to receive some of the children into families free of charge. Only lack of transportation facilities prevent a wholesale exodus of children from Vienna to Italy.

Thousands of children, too feeble to work, and too young to be sent to the front, have been gathered in hospitals, where they will benefit greatly by the medical supplies just arrived.

Condemns Present Dental System

Plan Opening of New Parliament Buildings Soon

White Parliament Will Meet Among their excellencies the Governor-General and the Duchess of Devonshire will hold a reception between the hours of 4.30 and 5 o'clock.

Although only certain parts of the building will be completed in time for the opening, it is stated, but it was thought by the cabinet that there should be some formality attached to the opening of the first session in new buildings, and as a result, the opening was arranged as outlined.

Most of the members and senators' rooms are already completed, and some of the officials of the House are already having their effects moved into the new quarters.

Sir George Foster, acting premier, and the members of the House of Commons will go from the railway committee room to the Commons chamber. There the senators will be in waiting, and there the formal opening ceremony will take place and the speech from the throne will be delivered.

Afterwards the Senate will vacate the chamber and the members of the House will take their place in the Commons chamber. The formal opening of the new parliament will be carried out on the rear of the building which is being finished.

U. S. Will Suffer As A Result of Trade Depression

To Build Official War Memorial for Canada

Will Take Form of Museum, Which Will Likely Be Located at Ottawa

Ottawa.—Canada's official war memorial will take the form of a museum, which probably will be erected in Ottawa, which will be erected in the war trophies belonging to the Canadian forces. At a meeting held here, resolutions were adopted unanimously recommending that there be a memorial to the Canadian war dead, and that the government should take steps to acquire such other elements as may be necessary to give full expression to national feeling, and as an expression of the sacrifice of the dead and the greatness of our national effort.

The memorial to the war dead will be chosen in a competition open to Canadian architects, and the winning of the project is placed in the hands of a committee composed of three delegates from each of the following bodies: The Great War Veterans' association, the War Service Association of Canada, the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada, the Royal Academy of Arts, and the Town Planning Institute of Canada.

The name of the commission will be the National Memorial Commission. Its members will serve without remuneration.

Russians May Yet Face Starvation

Soviet Government Places Too Many Restrictions on Trading

Paris.—Due to the practical working of the plan for the partial resumption of trade with Russia through the Russian co-operative societies, the Soviet government, according to ambassadors, the discussion came up through an examination of the possibility of the Bolsheviks being an outlet from Russia through the blockade. During this discussion it was stated that the Soviet government, after saying it would consent to the proposed restricted trading with the outside world through these co-operative societies, had shown a disposition to tie up the societies with official administration in such a way as to make even partial trading impossible.

Adoption of Peace Treaty by the United States Now Thought Likely

Russia Merely Stipulates That There Shall Be No Interference in Internal Affairs

Stockholm.—Peace negotiations between Great Britain and Soviet Russia are now in progress, according to a statement which the Swedish Dagbladet attributes to Adolf Joffe before the Swedish Diet, who is at the head of the Bolshevik peace delegation.

Mr. Joffe, the newspaper adds, says that Russia desired peace with all nations, and merely stipulated as a main condition that there be no interference in her internal affairs.

How many people do you know, including yourself—who would cause their neighbors to shed tears if they moved away?

Plan Opening of New Parliament Buildings Soon

White Parliament Will Meet Among their excellencies the Governor-General and the Duchess of Devonshire will hold a reception between the hours of 4.30 and 5 o'clock.

Although only certain parts of the building will be completed in time for the opening, it is stated, but it was thought by the cabinet that there should be some formality attached to the opening of the first session in new buildings, and as a result, the opening was arranged as outlined.

Most of the members and senators' rooms are already completed, and some of the officials of the House are already having their effects moved into the new quarters.

Sir George Foster, acting premier, and the members of the House of Commons will go from the railway committee room to the Commons chamber. There the senators will be in waiting, and there the formal opening ceremony will take place and the speech from the throne will be delivered.

Afterwards the Senate will vacate the chamber and the members of the House will take their place in the Commons chamber. The formal opening of the new parliament will be carried out on the rear of the building which is being finished.

"THE DUMBELLS"

"Biff, Bine, Bine" is the catchy title of the original overman, a comedy revue which the famous "Dumbells" are offering here at Empress Theatre on Monday, Feb. 19th. The "Dumbells," as they were called in France, where they gave over 500 performances to our Canadian soldiers, is an organization of soldier-actors, who were chosen by Capt. M. W. Plunkett from practically every branch of the service. Their performance, while given entirely by soldiers, is among similar hits in the big musical revues, as much in vogue as

London and New York, and the boys play everything from chorists to prima donnas.

The costumes and scenery are the last word in splendour, and the many songs and dance numbers, most of which were written especially for them by some of England's best composers, and brilliantly sung and executed.

FOR SALE

Span of Blood Mares, 5 and 6 years old, weight 1400 lbs. a piece, shod in Camblek Wagon, 71 inch good as new, will do well to do it. S. E. Clark's address, Emma P.O.

CURLING

With very fine ice the curlers are having a rare time, and the rink is fully occupied every evening. With practice, play is improving and some fine games can be witnessed. Curling is a great leveller and the best of feeling rules.

ON THE RINK

Dick matters: "Stones may come and stones may go, but I sweep on for ever."

Durkin, triumphant! Strange, but the same serene countenance, as if nothing were happening.

When the opposition skip throws his last stone and is yelling sweep her, sweep! sweep! and she goes clean through, finishing up by bumping against the end of the rink, but it a gran and glorious feat!

And when your skip lands a perfect tee with his last stone, and the opposition skip comes along with a straight drive, taking the place of honor in the count, isn't it a bit of a feat?

Monday night was sensational in the extreme. It to 6, and Arthur was out bright and early Tuesday morning hunting for a pair of Dave's overalls. Nothing else would do.
